Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Danbury (UU Danbury)
1822 – 2017

Welcoming all in a spirit of compassion, inquiry, and service

Our Mission Statement

(Adopted by this congregation May 16, 2008)

We are an open religious community that welcomes a diversity of people, ideas and beliefs.

We celebrate together that which is good in life, and offer comfort and care in times of need.

With others, we work to create a just society and a sustainable Earth.

We stand as a beacon for independent thought, and encourage lifelong spiritual and intellectual exploration.

Our Covenant

Love is the spirit of this congregation and justice is its light.

This is our covenant:

- To dwell together in peace,
- To seek and speak the truth in love,
- To help one another and celebrate life.

We are a Welcoming Congregation

This means that we have participated in a special denominational program to help us be more welcoming to people who are gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender. This program is part of our general ideal to welcome all – regardless of age, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religious background, or political affiliation – factors that can separate people in the larger culture.

Our UU Principles

"We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote":

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Who we are and our History

We are a religious community of approximately 253 adult members and friends, and 110 children from infants to high-schoolers. We are an intergenerational community with people from newborns to those in their 90s. Geographically we cover the greater Danbury, CT area, stretching east-west from Southbury, CT to Putnam, NY and north-south from New Milford to Ridgefield, CT. We have two Sunday Services, and offer religious education experiences for adults and youths.

We are a direct descendant of the First Universalist Society of Danbury organized in 1822. This makes us the second oldest UU society in the metropolitan New York district. We will celebrate our 200th anniversary in 2022.
