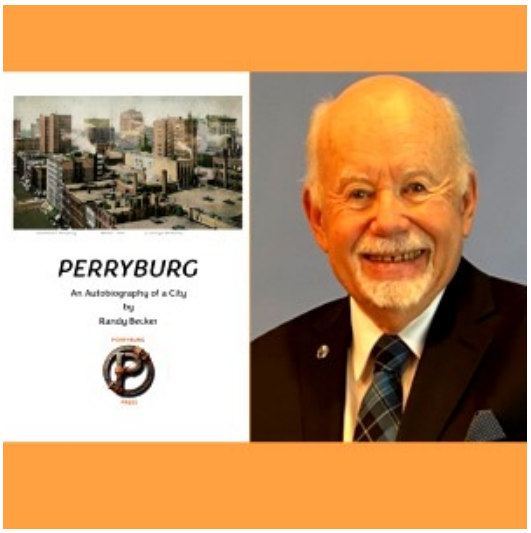
ridgefield library
Enriching Minds.
Enhancing Community.

Books on the Common

Perryberg Author Randy Becker in Conversation with Ira Joe Fisher



Thursday, June 5, 7:00 pm at Ridgefield Library

Join Randy Becker at the book launch for his new novel, Perryberg: An Autobiography of a City, an urban, mosaic history of a Rust Belt city. Not a bland recitation of dates and facts, but rather an engaging weaving of lives, Perryberg engages the reader with people and lives that might feel real, familiar, and personal. Becker will be interviewed by Ridgefield Poet Laureate, Ira Joe Fisher, who calls Perryberg "a grand read."

Becker is a retired Unitarian Minister turned writer who has also penned The Venice Stories, Reclaiming the Soul of Your Faith, and It's Always the Little Things.

The author lives in Ridgefield with his wife, Jane.

Books on the Common will have copies for sale and signing.

To register, please scan the QR code, visit ridgefieldlibrary.org or call (203)438-2282.